Teachers: Program information on the “A Day at School in Arizona Territory” can be obtained from the Internet. Search “Tubac Schoolhouse” in any search engine such as Google or Yahoo for access to the booklet. At public libraries in Santa Cruz or Pima Counties, ask for the “Encounters Reference Box” for more information on the natural and cultural history of the Tubac area.

Park location: We are in the southeast corner of the village of Tubac, Arizona, 45 miles south of Tucson or 20 miles north of Nogales on I-19, Exit 40 or 34, at the corner of Tubac Road and Burruel Street.

Park hours: 9am to 5pm – 7 days; Closed Christmas Day.

Setting: 10 acres at 3500 feet elevation featuring a visitor center, museum, underground archaeological display, 3 National Register of Historic Places buildings: 1885 Schoolhouse, Otero Hall, Rojas House; picnic area; and trailhead for the Juan Bautista de Anza National Historic Trail.

A word about fees: The fees outlined above are our established rates. We are now operated by volunteers and funded by contributions from visitors and members of the Tubac community. We do not want our fees to deprive anyone from experiencing the resources of Tubac Presidio State Historic Park & Museum. If you need financial assistance, please contact us and we will make every attempt to accommodate your group.
